Death by Denim

Written by Linda Gerber

Teen

Thriller

224 pages

Aphra Connolly is being chased by some very dangerous people. She knows her survival depends upon staying far away from love interest, Seth, and listening to her mom's lectures on the finer points of anonymity and survival. But how is a girl supposed to live under the radar and not think about her boyfriend when she's in Paris — the most romantic city in the world? When her mom's contact in Paris is found floating in the Seine with a deadly message stuffed in his mouth, Aphra realizes that she will never be able to stop running unless she confronts the situation head-on. Sneaking away from her mom, Aphra tracks down the criminal mastermind in Italy, only to unwittingly reveal Seth's location. Her mistake puts them both in mortal danger...

More about this book...

Aphra Connolly would like to be a normal teenager but she has a mother who is a spy, a boyfriend who is wanted by criminals and she can't help but look over her shoulder wherever she goes. Death, daring escapes and fighting for her life are what she deals with on a daily basis. Aphra is a brave, resourceful heroine who, when faced with difficult circumstances, always comes through for those who need her. This book is part of a series but can easily be read on its own.
